

おみやげは、コアラ

A

You are working as a customs officer at an airport in Japan. You ask questions and check passengers' luggage for suspicious items. Be stern and stop any smugglers or terrorists!

Ask the passenger to show you his/her passport.

Ask some questions: i.e. where he/she lives, what he/she is going to do in Japan.

Ask the passenger to open his/her bag. Ask what particular items are.

When you find an animal in the bag, ask the passenger if it is his/hers. Call the security.

おみやげは、コアラ

B

You have landed in Japan and are going through customs. You are feeling nervous as you have an Australian native animal concealed in your suitcase. Answer the questions the officer asks you, trying not to give yourself away.

Show your passport.

Answer the customs officer's questions.

Open the bag and describe the items as requested.

When your animal is found, admit that it's yours and apologise.

