The second character is 'ゝ' (x), a smaller character that starts with a thick vertical stroke on the left, curves to the right, and ends with a thin, downward-pointing tail.

The image shows a single calligraphic character 'す' (su) in black ink. It features a thick vertical stroke on the right side that curves downwards. A horizontal stroke crosses the vertical one near the top, extending to the left. Below the vertical stroke, there is a small, curved loop that connects back to the vertical line.
