Introduction to pressreader™ : an electronic newspaper and magazine service

As an alternate source of information, we would like to introduce PressReader, an e-magazines and e-newspaper platform that is available to NSW residents.

NSW residents can sign up for a Library card online and access selected Japanese e-magazines, and e-newspapers, and it is free to join.

1. Sign up a user card of State Library of NSW.

To find more information:

<https://www.sl.nsw.gov.au/research-and-collections/get-library-card>

2. Log in to PressReader

PressReader covers 6,000+ newspapers and magazines from over 100 countries in more than 60 languages.

40+ titles are available from Japan including two daily newspapers Mainichi Shinbun and The Japan Times, and various lifestyle magazines.

The content is displayed in Page View (like the printed version). Back issues are available up to 3 months old.

To log in PressReader:

<https://eresources.sl.nsw.gov.au/pressreader>

3. Choose countries or languages

Choose a country or language of the content you wish to read by clicking the function button located at the bottom-right side menu bar to narrow down the displayed titles.

To go back to the home page of PressReader, please click "Catalog" button located at the top-left corner.

Enjoy!
