

日本語教育セミナー

UNSW Japanese Language Education Seminar

日本語が意味を持つとき：

国際結婚家庭の日本語の
保持・継承とアイデンティティ

★本セミナーは日本語で行われます。

★The seminar will be conducted in Japanese.

Sunday, 20 October 2019

13:00-16:15

(Includes a tea break and networking)

The Japan Foundation, Sydney

Level 4, Central Park, 28 Broadway, Chippendale

講演者 Speaker : 三宅和子 教授 (東洋大学) Professor Kazuko Miyake (Toyo University)

司会進行 MC : トムソン木下千尋 教授 (NSW 大学) Professor Chihiro Thomson (UNSW)

社会言語学・日本語教育がご専門の三宅先生が、社会変化の中で「移動する人びと」の日本語の保持・継承がどのように行われてきたのか、特に第2世代の子ども達にとって日本語の保持・継承がどんな意味をもっているのかについて講演されます。

Kazuko Miyake is a Professor at Department of Japanese Literature and Culture, Toyo University. Her research interests lie in the area of sociolinguistics and Japanese language education. In this seminar, she will present how Japanese heritage language has been maintained and developed, discuss the meaning of Japanese language, especially for Second-Generation children who are from international marriage families.

参加申し込み Registration <https://tinyurl.com/yxbkyge7> (Max: 100 participants)

Free; REGISTRATION ESSENTIAL

お問い合わせ Enquiries y.zheng@unsw.edu.au

共催

Co-sponsored by:

UNSW School of Humanities and Languages

UNSW Scientia Education Academy

The Japan Foundation, Sydney

UNSW
SYDNEY

JAPAN FOUNDATION
BRINGING JAPAN TO YOU